The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

The First Lesson: Acts 2:1-21

In observance of Pentecost, parishioners will read in many languages.

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: `In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' "

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104:25-35, 37 Benedic, anima mea

- 25 O Lord, how manifold are your works! *
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.
- 26 Yonder is the great and wide sea
with its living things too many to number, *
creatures both small and great.
- 27 There move the ships,
and there is that Leviathan, *
which you have made for the sport of it.
- 28 All of them look to you *
to give them their food in due season.
- 29 You give it to them; they gather it; *
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
- 30 You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.
- 31 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
and so you renew the face of the earth.
- 32 May the glory of the Lord endure for ever; *
may the Lord rejoice in all his works.
- 33 He looks at the earth and it trembles; *
he touches the mountains and they smoke.
- 34 I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.
- 35 May these words of mine please him; *
I will rejoice in the Lord.

37 Bless the Lord, O my soul. *
Hallelujah!

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-13

Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that is taking place among you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, so that you may also be glad and shout for joy when his glory is revealed. If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, is resting on you.

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. Discipline yourselves, keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters in all the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering. And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. To him be the power forever and ever. Amen.

The Holy Gospel: John 20:19-23

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John Response: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Old American Hymn Tune

His voice as the sound of the dulcimer sweet,
is heard through the shadows of death;
the cedars of Lebanon bow at his feet,
the air is perfumed with his breath.
His lips as the fountain of righteousness flow,
that waters the garden of grace;
from which their salvation the Gentiles shall know,
and bask in the smiles of his face.

Post Communion Prayer

p. 366

*Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food
of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ;
and for assuring us in these holy mysteries
that we are living members of the Body of your Son,
and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out
to do the work you have given us to do,
to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever.

UPDATE ON THE EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF JERUSALEM IN LIGHT OF VIOLENCE IN GAZA AND ISRAEL: As Stand with Iraqi Christians noted last week in their presentations in the DC area, being a Christian in the Middle East is increasingly challenging, and support from US partners is both important and encouraging. With violence expanding in Gaza over the past few weeks, the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem has provided updates to its supporting parishes about the situation there, with an interview with the faithful head of Al Ahli hospital in Gaza, a hospital that does not shut its doors to anyone under any circumstances, despite the dangers and challenges. Former Immanuel parishioner Most Rev. Hosam Naoum, now Archbishop of Jerusalem, recently said, "Throughout this emergency, the dedicated staff of our Ahli Hospital in Gaza, at great personal risk, have been working around the clock, tending to the wounded and accepting urgent surgical cases that other overburdened hospitals have been unable to take. This flood of patients has taxed their limited resources, leading to shortages of medicines, medical supplies, and fuel for their generators that must run for extended hours due to electrical black-outs." You can see a short interview with the hospital's director Suhaila Tarazi at <https://afedj.org/gaza-2023/>. While we did not publicize the annual Good Friday appeal of the American Friends of the Diocese of Jerusalem this year because of their appeal for help to earthquake victims in Syria during Lent, you can provide support to the Diocese's ministry of healing in Gaza by visiting <https://afedj.org/give/give-online/>.

It's All About Love: A Festival for the Jesus Movement - July 9-12, Baltimore, MD: Are you interested in participating in part or all of this exciting July 9-12 event in Baltimore, bringing together Episcopalians and others from across the country to focus on evangelism, creation care, and racial reconciliation? A series of plenary sessions, eucharistic worship services, and small group presentations and discussions will take participants deep into these topics. Immanuel's social justice budget will defray the registration costs of any Immanuel participants. Visit <https://www.episcopalchurch.org/its-all-about-love/> to learn more. Because the event is in nearby Baltimore, it would be relatively easy to participate in parts of the event without committing to the full three days. If you are interested please contact atwooddavid@gmail.com or kathryn.jackson41@gmail.com.

Beginning This Thursday: Food Drive for ALIVE!

Traditionally, Immanuel Church-on-the-Hill has collected canned goods and non-perishable foods for Alive! two months a year. Our last collection in January was a huge success! Let's do it again in JUNE!

When packing groceries for our neediest neighbors, the items that run out the most frequently are:

-  Jams
-  Jellies
-  100% fruit juice

So please buy extras of these in June and bring to the collection boxes in the narthex in either Immanuel Chapel or Zabriskie. Food drive ends June 30th.

If possible, bring your donations in recyclable, reusable bags. Additional non-perishable, non-expired food items — proteins, fruits, veggies; pasta/rice/oatmeal; no glass containers, please — are greatly appreciated.

Thanks in advance!

Primary Elections coming up in Virginia

Primary elections for Virginia Delegates and Senators have begun! Primary Election Day is June 20, but you may vote in some districts now. Primary elections are held only in districts where there are within-party challenges for the nomination to run in the November election; in the rest of the districts candidates for nomination are unopposed or are chosen by conventions. There will be no primaries in Alexandria this year, but there will be in Arlington and part of Fairfax County.

Do you know which Virginia delegate and senate district you live in? Not so fast! All district boundaries have been re-drawn in the last year, and yours may have changed. To find out for sure which districts you live in, go to <https://whosmy.virginiageneralassembly.gov/> and enter your address.

Senate

The following website depicts the new Senate districts and the ethnic composition of each district.

<https://www.virginiaredistricting.org/legdistricting/comments/plan/549/1>

Districts in Northern Virginia with primaries for State Senate are 32, 33, 35, 36, 37 and 40.

The following website lists the candidates for each Virginia Senate primary election:

House of Delegates

Districts in Northern Virginia with primaries for State Delegate are: District 2 (Arlington), District 7 (Western Fairfax), District 15 (Fairfax County) and District 19 (Fairfax/Prince William).

The following website depicts the new Delegate districts and the ethnic composition of each district.

Another good source of information about the Virginia primary can be found at:

<https://cardinalnews.org/2023/04/20/2023-virginia-general-assembly-elections-southwest-and-southside/> which has links to information provided by Virginia Public Access Project.

If you have college students or other family members who will be away from home, remind them to apply for an absentee ballot.

Additional info for Arlington and Fairfax residents:

For those of us who live in Arlington or Fairfax counties, there are primaries for Democratic candidates for certain offices in the November elections. Primaries are all open in Virginia. This means that you may vote in this year's primary without being a Democrat and your voice will be heard.

Remember – if you have changed addresses or even apartments in the same building, you must change your voter registration. Even if you haven't moved, your polling place may have. So check on the web sites.

Arlington County is trying out Ranked Choice Voting in the primary for the Arlington County Board.

Republicans used this process in the 2021 primaries. There is a lot of information on the Arlington election website concerning how this type of voting, in which you are able to vote for your first, second, and third choice, is tabulated. Information also includes a great example using favorite ice cream flavors.

The following websites are great sources of information:

<https://vote.arlingtonva.gov/Elections>

<https://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/elections>

Wondering about MD or DC elections? There are no primary elections in Maryland or the District of Columbia in 2023.
