

Earth Day: Creation Alliteration
A Reflection by Eileen Monnin-Kirby
April 22, 2020

Day 1

Astounding, alluring, amorphous atmosphere
Luminous, lingering, layered light
Dreamy, divine, deep dark

Day 2

Sweeping, stratus, sublime, slate-blue sky
Colorful, cumulus, curious clouds

Day 3

Shimmering, cerulean, ceaseless seas
Full-fledged, fruitful flora, fertile fauna
Productive prairies, plentiful plants
Riotous, rolling, rejuvenating rivers
Sacrificial, subterranean, sinking cenotes
Fantastic, formidable, far-reaching fiordlands
Monolithic, mineral-rich, midnight-blue mountains
Extraordinary, electromagnetic, ethereal elements

Day 4

Substantive, supercharged, sensational sun
Mythical, monthly, mute moon
Scintillating, seasonal, staggering stars

Day 5

Beautiful, bountiful, bohemian birds
Flippant, frisky, fabled fish

Day 6

Aquatic, agricultural, ancient animals
Marvelous, mystical, miraculous men
Wondrous, winsome, worthy women
Prodigious, peculiar, precious people

Day 7

His quest at rest; our best nest.

--E.M. Kirby