The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, who knowest our necessities before we ask and our ignorance in asking: Have compassion, we beseech thee, upon our infirmities, and those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask, mercifully give us for the worthiness of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson: Jeremiah 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: "The Lord is our righteousness."

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 23 Dominus regit me

- 1 The Lord is my shepherd; *
I shall not be in want.
- 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures *
and leads me beside still waters.
- 3 He revives my soul *
and guides me along right pathways for his Name's sake.
- 4 Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I shall fear no evil; *
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
- 5 You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; *
you have anointed my head with oil,
and my cup is running over.
- 6 Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, *
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Epistle: Ephesians 2:11-22

Remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, called “the uncircumcision” by those who are called “the circumcision” —a physical circumcision made in the flesh by human hands— remember that you were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling place for God.

The word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel: Mark 6:30-34, 53-56

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark

Response: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, “Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.” For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

IMMANUEL CHURCH-ON-THE-HILL

Parish Notes

July 21, 2024

IN THE NAME OF CHRIST we welcome you to Immanuel Church-on-the-Hill!

Immanuel is an Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia, and is part of the world-wide Anglican Communion. Immanuel was founded by the Virginia Theological Seminary. We are one parish that worships in two locations: the Zabriskie Chapel (3606 Seminary Road), and Immanuel Chapel (3737 Seminary Road) on the seminary grounds. Both chapels offer a fully-staffed nursery for our infant and toddler parishioners.

Visitors are encouraged to fill out a visitor card — located in the pews or display stands at the entrances of the chapels. Give your card to an usher or place in the collection plate. Thank you.

For the latest information on our online worship service and to view a video of our most recent service, please visit our website (www.icoh.net).

In reference to the death announcement above, please note that Deacon Linda served Immanuel as a Vocational Deacon in 2011 and 2012. Linda's husband Cy wanted Immanuelites to know that his late wife loved bringing pastoral care to parishioners - it was her favorite ministry. She brought communion to many Immanuelites at their homes — and on multiple occasions — when a family member was ill.

Her funeral is scheduled for Tuesday, July 30th at 9:30 a.m. at Saint James Church in Montross, VA (<https://www.stjamesmontross.com/>). Internment and reception follow - all are invited. Bishop Susan Goff will celebrate the Eucharist.

Last week we announced, with sadness, the death of Brie Whitmire, daughter of Dr. Mark and Virginia Whitmire, former music director and organist for Immanuel. A memorial service for Brie is scheduled for Friday, August 9th at 11a.m. at St. James Episcopal Church, 1205 W. Franklin St., Richmond, VA.

If you are interested in carpooling or sharing the cost of a van or bus to attend this service, please contact Dorothy Kellogg djaskellogg@gmail.com or Karen Besser karen.besser@gmail.com ASAP and we will investigate the logistics.

Christmas Families in August Campaign for Learning. Last Sunday to sign up

We are very close to taking care of all the children on our list. We got one more referral and many more sign-ups last Sunday. So here are the new numbers:

	Families	Children
Referred by the Alexandria Department of Community and Human Services	64	140
Signed-up for by parish families (as of Sunday, July 14)	59	126
Remaining	5	14

Wouldn't it be lovely to get the last 5 families "adopted" this Sunday to provide backpacks filled with school supplies for the children and give them the tools for learning, lift their spirits, and send them off to a good start in the new school year. You will receive a yellow instruction sheet with names and all the information you need.

Some children also need back-to-school clothing as indicated on the sign-up boards.

A big part of Christmas Families is for parish children and youth getting involved in helping their less fortunate peers and experiencing how charity contributes to achieving equity.

It is amazing how the parish came through to provide for twice as many of God's beloved children as last year.
